Volunteering the way to go at Bethesda Hospital

Friday 11 May 2012

As part of National Volunteer week, Bethesda Hospital will be thanking their Volunteers with a celebratory morning tea at the hospital on Friday 18 May 2012 at 10am.

Bethesda Hospital currently employs over 50 Volunteers who provide vital assistance and support to the staff, patients and visitors to the hospital.

The majority of the Volunteers work in the main reception as a 'meet and greet' service, or in the 24 bed Palliative Care unit of the hospital.

Bethesda Hospital CEO, Ms Yasmin Naglazas said that 'our Volunteer group are such a dedicated and helpful team, and really contribute to the award winning patient care that the hospital is known for. We wanted to recognise each and every one for their assistance'.

At the morning tea each Volunteer received a certificate of appreciation and service from the hospital.

To find out more about becoming a Volunteer at Bethesda Hospital, please contact the Volunteer Manager, Ms Sahara Scaddan on 9340 6423 or email sscaddan@bethesda.asn.au

Bethesda is an independent 88-bed hospital in Claremont, which has been providing outstanding care and service to the Western Australian community for over 60 years.
